

World Competition Day

What role does the competition has in reducing poverty?

Budapest, 5 December 2013.

The issue of the event: Adverse Impact of Cartels on the Poor

Time of the event: 5 December 2013.

Location: Aranytíz Community Centre, Nagylovag hall

Address: Budapest, V. district Arany János u. 10.

Moderator: Júlia Torda, communication expert

The planned programme:

9. 00 Opening remarks – Miklós Juhász, president of the GVH
9. 10 Competition and poverty reduction – statements of the OECD study – Zsófia Tari, fellow worker of GVH
9. 30 The reasons of poverty and the tools of reducing poverty: where the more competition is good? – István Tóth, CEO of TÁRKI
- 9.50 Local cartels in the GVH's practice – Kinga Kollár, senior fellow worker of the GVH
- 10.10 The effect of social micro-lending on reducing poverty and on competition – György Molnár, senior research fellow of MTA KRTK, Institutes of Economics
10. 30 Coffee break
11. 00 Panel discussions
- Lajos Gyóri-Dani, executive vice-president of Hungarian Maltese Charity Service
- György Molnár, senior research fellow MTA KRTK, Institutes of Economics
- Endre Sík, senior researcher of TÁRKI
- András Tóth, vice-president of the GVH, president of the Competition Council
- 11.50 Questions – answers
- 12.00 Concluding remarks