

Ivona FILLOVA

expert

the Antimonopoly Office of the Slovak Republic

Ivona Fillova has been working for the Antimonopoly Office of the Slovak Republic since 2003. After being part of the Merger Division, she joined the Division of Abuse of Dominant Position and Vertical Agreements in 2008.

She became interested in competition issues during her studies at the University of Economics in Bratislava where she took part in a year course provided in cooperation with the Erasmus University of Rotterdam and passed the examinations to receive the Certificate in European Law and Economics.

As a case handler she is an expert in energy and food sector and was responsible for elaboration of the inquiries into the functioning of natural gas and heating management sector in the Slovak Republic.

In the years 2012-2013 she was the head of the working group for food and agriculture within the Office.