

Daniel Mańkowski

Director of the Legal Department, Office of Competition and Consumer Protection, Poland

Daniel Mańkowski, PhD, JD, Attorney-at-law, Academic lecturer as Director of the Legal Department of the Polish Office of Competition and Consumer Protection provides legal advice to the President of the Office and coordinates the Office's legal services.

He gained professional experience in various government administration bodies, where besides legislative process, he specialized in regulatory impact assessment, law and economics, and evidence-based legislation.

Daniel Mańkowski supervises the development of draft legal acts in the area of competition and consumer protection. Inter alia, he introduced regulations concerning the abuse of contractual advantage and counteracting payment gridlocks into the Polish legal system.

He has been awarded by the Prime Minister of the Republic of Poland for his contribution to the Polish legislation.