Deputy Head of Unit, Digital Economy,
Bundeskartellamt

Frederike Bröhl is Deputy Head of Unit “Digital Economy”, which is part of the General Policy Division at the Bundeskartellamt.

Among other things, the unit works on conceptual projects and supports the work of the Bundeskartellamt’s decision divisions in the area of the digital economy.

Frederike’s main focus is on issues relating to the extended abuse control for companies of paramount significance for competition across markets (§ 19a GWB) as well as on the interaction between the DMA and competition law from a German perspective.
