

Gábor FEJES

Attorney-at-Law, Partner,
DLA Piper

Gábor Fejes is partner at DLA Piper's Budapest office and co-heads the Hungarian Antitrust Practice. He has over 25 years of experience as a private practitioner. His areas of practice include in particular European and Hungarian antitrust law, unfair commercial practices (consumer protection) and unfair competition cases.

Gábor has been, since 2001, a competition law lecturer at the Law Faculties of both major Science Universities of Budapest: ELTE and PPKE.

He has been since 2014 the Vice president of the Hungarian Competition Law Association, the Hungarian member organization to the LIDC. Gábor is a non-governmental advisor (NGA) to the International Competition Network (ICN), appointed by the Hungarian Competition Authority.

For over a decade, he has also acted as an arbitrator in domestic and international commercial arbitration cases.

He has over 100 publications on issues of Hungarian and European competition law, contracts law, trademark law and arbitration. He is also a frequent speaker on conferences.

Gábor is married and lives in Budapest with his wife and four sons.
