

Zoltán HEGYMEGI- BARAKONYI

President of the Hungarian Competition Association

Dr. Zoltán Hegymegi-Barakonyi is a partner in the competition law practice of Hegymegi-Barakonyi és Fehérváry Baker & McKenzie. He is widely experienced in cartel, dominant position and merger control cases, having represented several international and Hungarian companies before the Hungarian Competition Authority and the European Commission, as well as before Hungarian and EU courts.

Prior to joining the Firm in 1994, he worked for the Hungarian Competition Authority and completed an internship at the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the US Department of Justice.

He is the President of the Hungarian Competition Law Association and First Vice-President of the International League of Competition Law (ILDC). He also served as non-governmental advisor to the International Competition Network (ICN).

He is a member of the Scientific Board of the Competition Law Research Institute at Pázmány Péter Catholic University. He is also a lecturer at Eötvös Lóránd University and Pázmány Péter Catholic University in Budapest.

He is a regular speaker on competition law related matters at conferences and has published several articles on competition law and merger control.