

Zombor BEREZVAI

Chief Economist, Hungarian Competition Authority

Zombor Berezvai is Chief Economist at the Hungarian Competition Authority and Associate Professor at Corvinus University of Budapest. Prior to his academic career, he worked at Procter & Gamble as a finance manager and at Planslab as a senior consultant in charge of several projects. He teaches econometrics, data-driven decision making, market research and competition policy at various universities in Hungary. His research interests include competition policy, micromobility, economics of education, public health and cultural tourism. He has published several papers in high-ranking journals and received prestigious awards such as the Academic Youth Award of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences in 2023, the Corvinus Research Excellence Award in 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024, and the Outstanding Paper Literati Award of Emerald in 2020.

ARCHÍVUM