

VISEGRAD 4 COMPETITION CONFERENCE

ROBERT NERUDA

CURRICULUM VITAE

Robert Neruda (CZ) is the partner and head of Havel, Holasek & Partners' (the largest Czech-Slovak law firm) competition and state aid practice. He focuses on advising clients in the areas of cartels, abuse of a dominant position, control of concentrations, state aid and public procurement. He practices competition law in Prague/Brno and Bratislava. He is considered one of the six leading experts in the Czech Republic for competition law by The International Who's Who of Competition Lawyers & Economists 2013, and recognized as an antitrust expert by the PLC Which Lawyer? and Chambers Europe Guide. His clients are large multinationals and market leaders in various sectors (telco, energy, environment, retail, automotive, construction etc.). Havel, Holasek & Partners is the Law Firm of the Czech Republic for Competition in 2013.

Prior to joining Havel, Holasek & Partners in June 2010, he served eight years at the Czech Competition Authority, two last years as its Vice-Chairman. He is a co-author of the commentary on the Czech Competition Act, commentary on the Czech Public Procurement Act and dozens of articles on competition and public procurement law.