

Zoltán Nándor AY
expert
Hungarian Competition Authority

Zoltán Nándor AY (HU) obtained his law degree in 2004 from the Catholic University Péter Pázmány. After spending one year at a small-sized law firm, Zoltán joined the Gazdasági Versenyhivatal in 2005. He worked as case handler and dealt with antitrust and merger cases as well.

In 2010 he passed his bar exam, and in the same year he became compliance council at the Hungarian oil company (MOL).

In 2013 he was appointed to the head of compliance at HungaroControl, the Hungarian air navigation service provider.

In 2017 Zoltán joined the Gazdasági Versenyhivatal as a case handler at the Antitrust section.

Zoltán holds a master's degree from the Faculty of Philosophy of the Catholic University Péter Pázmány. He participated in internship with European Commission DG Competition. Zoltán is fluent in German and English.